

The John Stockton Safety Patrols assist teachers and administrators by ensuring students follow safety guidelines around campus. Safety patrols play a pivotal role in ensuring students are safe as they arrive and leave school. Our safety patrol is comprised of fifth graders who were chosen based on a point system that includes attendance, citizenship, academic achievement, and the ability to work successfully in a position of leadership among peers. Being a safety patrol is both an honor and a great responsibility

