

School Advisory Councils Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is a SAC?

A School Advisory Council (SAC) is a group of people who work together to improve the quality of education in a school. They are made up of teachers, parents, and community members who are interested in the school's success.

A SAC is a group of people who work together to improve the quality of education in a school. They are made up of teachers, parents, and community members who are interested in the school's success.

